Wednesday, January 16. 1723.

Stockholm, January 3.

SO furious a Storm of Wind blew here the 29th past at Night, and next Morning, that it was feared all the Houses would have been thrown down; several Ships drove foul against each other near Kernham, and were broke to Pieces. The Deputies from the States of the Kingdom are already arrived here, but the King being still diverting himself with Hunting in the Country, they defer notifying their Arrival till his Majesty's Return. Lieutenant-General Stackelberg, who commands in Finland, has sent Word, that the Russians at Wybourg have collected a great Quantity of Materials proper for Fortifications, and that they are to be conveyed upon Sledges towards the Swedish Frontiers of Finland; from whence 'tis concluded, that new Fortifications are designed to be raised there.

Basle, Jan. 2. Great Number of Recruits are brought hither from Lucern to be sent to Catalonia, and more are raising in that and other Popish Cantons. 'Tis said, that M. d'Avercy, Minister of France, has received large Remittances by Bills of Exchange, with Orders from his Court to renew Alliances with all Switzerland: It is affirmed, that some of the Popish Cantons have lately received no inconsiderable Sums, to induce them to enter into a new Alliance, but 'tis believed the Protestant Cantons will hardly alter theirs. This Minister's design'd Journey to Paris is no more talk'd of, so that 'tis imagined he has received counter Orders. . . . Letters from Alsatia are full of Complaints upon Account of a new Ordinance for raising the Value of current Specie in those Parts, which is already much above its intrinsic Worth; and of the Country People's being forced by the Intendants to carry their Corn and Provision into Magazines against the Month of February next, under severe Penalties.

Genoa, Jan. 5. On the 1st Day of this Month happened a terrible Storm here, which brought in so prodigious a Sea, that the Long-Boat of his Britannick Majesty's Ship Winchester was forced from her Stern and two Men in her, seven others went in her Yawl to endeavour to save them, but both were overfet; however two of the Men were saved by another Boat sent by Commodore Scott.

Vienna, Jan. 6. The States of Lower Austria having made some Representations to this Court, tending to persuade the Emperour from going to Prague, 'tis said his Imperial Majesty answered them, . . . That the Inhabitants of Bohemia are likewise his good Subjects . . . since which, no Body has thought proper to offer any thing further against that Journey. Mean while, the Officers belonging to the Court wait only for final Orders to pack up and send away the Baggage. Several Remittances are likewise sent thither for repairing the Palace, and 'tis believed, that the necessary Repairs that are to be made therein, will take up at least three Months; those who oppose this Journey, reckon six. At present no other Discourse is mentioned but of the Court's going to Prague, the principal Motive whereof is attributed to arise from the Advice of one of the Emperess's Physicians, recommending the Air of Bohemia to be more contributive to Pregnancy than this. Such of the foreign Ministers and Nobility who desire it, will be permitted to follow the Court, and Means are now settling for the more commodious and regular Conveyance thither of Provisions from Silesia, Moravia, and Austria. M. Dierling, the Imperial Resident at Constantinople, writes in his last Letters from thence, that the Friendship between the Porte, and France and Spain, encreases daily, which Occasions it to be believed here, that the Report of an Alliance formerly said to be entered into between those Powers, is not altogether without Foundation; and the rather, because an Ambassadour from Spain is expected at Constantinople, to concert, as 'tis given out, with the Ministers of the Porte, proper Means for putting a Stop to the Proceedings of the Barbary Corsairs, at least to hinder them from attacking the Ships of Spain. 'Tis said also, that great Search is made after Prince Ragotski, in order to apprehend him; but this is looked upon to be no better than an Artifice by some People, who are of Opinion that he is sent away incognito towards Hungary.

Hambourg, Jan. 15. Advices from Domits say, that an Express from the Duke of Mecklenbourg had brought an Order to the Governour of that Place, requiring him to permit the Duke's Secretary to set out from thence and bring him some Papers. That Express also brought Letters to certain of the Nobility, exhorting them to have yet a little Patience, and that they might depend upon being speedily succoured. The Commandant has likewise received Orders to take Care that no Person be suffered to enter the Place without being first examined.

Hague, Jan. 19. North Holland being much in Arrear in its Account of Contingencies, not having made any Payment for several Years past, the States of Holland have taken into Consideration to pay off those Debts upon certain Conditions, and there only wants the Consent of some of the lesser Cities to bring this Affair to a Conclusion. Those States continue assembled.

The CHRONOLOGICAL HISTORIAN: Containing, a regular Account of all material Transactions and Occurrences, Ecclesiastical, Civil and Military, relating to the English Affairs from the Invasion of the Romans to the present Time. With the Creation and Promotions of the Nobility and Barons, Ministers of State, Generals, Judges, Attorneys, and Solicitors-General, as they stand in Order of Time; whereby that Confusion which generally misleads the Reader in the perusal of our Historians, for want of an exact Chronology, is prevented, and other Defects and Omissions supply'd. By Mr. SALMON. Printed for W. Meares at the Lamb without Temple-Bar. Price 6s.

Next Week will be Published

A True and Impartial History of the Conspiracy against the Person and Government of King William the Third of Glorious Memory, in the Year 1695. By Sir Richard Blackmore, Kt. M. D. Printed for James Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

All Inflammation and Soreness of the EYES, Bloodshot, Defluxion of sharp Humours, dimness of Sight, Specks, Films, or beginning Cataracts, &c. absolutely cured by a wonderful Chymical Liquor lately found out, which immediately Heals and Cures all manner of Soreness of the Eyes in Children or grown Persons, tho' of many Years standing, and whether proceeding from the Evil, or any other Distemper, and that without causing the least Pain or Uneasiness in using; it effectually takes away all Specks, Films, or incipient Cataracts to Admiration, as also all Flies, Grains, &c. that seem to swim before the Sight; it wonderfully strengthens the Optick Nerves, comforts the Eyes, certainly removes all Dimness, clearing the Sight, and assuredly preserving it strong and good to exceeding old Age; many who were so very dim-sighted for some Years, as scarcely able to distinguish any thing, have been perfectly and almost instantly cured by it, so as to read the smallest Print without Spectacles; and for Ophthalmies, or sore Eyes, and all hot Rheumy Affects, no Medicine on Earth can come near it; hundreds have been cured by it of the very worst sort almost upon the Spot, and Blindness been prevented in abundance who had tried all other Remedies in vain, inasmuch that it may be almost accounted a Miracle of a Medicine. Is sold only by the Gentlewoman at the two Blue Posts in Haydon-yard in the Mitre-lane, at 1s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Fam'd Worm-Plaster, Published chiefly for the Benefit of Children that are averse to take Physick, which though an outward Application only, yet exceeds in Virtue most internal Medicaments; for it infallibly destroys all sorts of Worms in Persons of all Ages, Sexes, or Constitutions, in a very little Time, and removes the Cause, or Seeds of those Vermin, and thereby prevents the Persons relapsing, without taking any thing inwardly, or any the least Danger or Inconvenience; for though it is principally recommended for the Destruction of all sorts of Worms in Children, or grown Persons, having destroyed Thousands; it is also peculiarly serviceable to all Weakly, and Rickets Children; for it is not only a Cordial to the Stomach of Weakly Children, opening Obstructions thereof, and thereby relieves such as are inclined to Rickets; but it also prevents Convulsions, and Cures many other Distempers incident to Children: As will appear by the Directions at large, given with the Medicine: Which is sold for 2s. 6d. the Gally-pot, next Door to the Wheat-Sheaf and Crown, the Corner House of Bear-Alley, by Fleet-Ditch, near Moulbourn-Bridge.
